QUALITY POLICY

Designing, updating, and developing the student education and training services in accordance with the international standards, the needs, and expectations of all relevant stakeholders,

Contributing to the development of technology and society by doing entrepreneurial, innovative, sustainable, technology and product-oriented research activities,

To monitor, review and improve educational, research, development, and service activities by establishing a governance network through the processes and monitoring and increasing the satisfaction of all relevant stakeholders,

Using all the university's resources efficiently and establishing and improving a sustainable structure by minimizing the adverse effects on the environment,

To report, review and improve national, international quality methods, accreditation principles as well as academic and administrative activities by taking the views of stakeholders.